

We asked, and they answered: 2A comes out on top

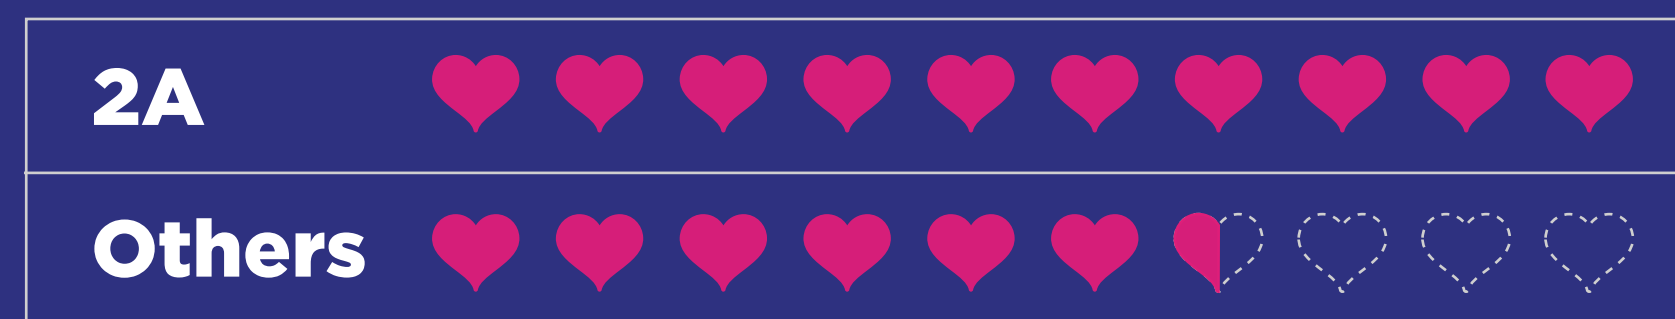

We surveyed an anonymous group of 50+ marketers, project managers, and other professionals with several months to more than 12 years of experience as contractors to find out how 2A stacks up against other agencies.

Here's a hint: we did great!

Embedded Consultants (ECs) love working at 2A

When it comes to the agency experience, 2A ECs were more satisfied than contractors from other firms

100% of 2A's ECs reported feeling satisfied with their experience, while only 65% of respondents who worked for other agencies felt the same.

I love so many things about 2A! First and foremost, pay rate, then PTO, company support, and gifts. THANK YOU!! 😊

Working at 2A leads to a better overall work experience

2A ECs were also more satisfied with their overall experience than contractors from other firms

100% of 2A ECs reported feeling satisfied or neutral about their overall experience, while not all contractors at other firms were in the same camp

Our benefits take the cake

There's a lot to love about 2A, but our insurance benefits and company culture are the favorites

While 2A ECs rated our medical, dental, and vision insurance and our company culture as the two perks they loved most, they appreciated the total package we offer, which includes:

Medical, dental, and vision insurance with 100% of the premium covered for employees

Company culture that makes consultants feel valued and supported

401k plan with matching

Support navigating their roles

Generous paid time off

Events, gifts, and perks

2A's benefits are a deciding factor

Our superior benefits and company culture helped 2A ECs decide to say yes to their contractor opportunities

100% of 2A ECs reported that our benefits and culture were important in deciding whether to move forward with their roles.

The support from the 2A team is amazing. They're truly invested in my career growth.
